Poetical.

From the Christian Inquirer.

"THY WILL BE DONE."

BY CAROLINE A. MASON.

I PRAY, with meek hands on my breast,
"Thy will be done, thy kingdom come;"
But shouldst thou call my dear ones home,
Should I still say, "'Tis best;
Thy will be done?"

I cannot tell. I probe my heart
With sharpest instruments of pain,
And listen if the sweet refrain
Still wells up through the smart—
"Thy will be done."

I cannot tell. I yield the quest,
Content if only day by day
My God shall give me grace to say,
"Father, thou knowest best;
Thy will be done."

"Give us this day our daily bread"—
So prayed the Christ, and so will I.
Father, my daily need supply;
I shall not go unfed.
"Thy will be done."

Thy will be done. Take aught away
Thou seest needful. Give aught—health
Or sickness, penury or wealth—
Only give strength to say,
"Thy will be done."

And should those fiery trials come
I wot of, Thy dear word I'll treasure
To help me bear whate'er I meet,
And say, all murmurs hush,
"Thy will be done."

And when with solemn care, some day,
Sweet friends my dying eyes shall close,
Hear my last prayer, and give to those
I love best strength to say,
"Thy will be done."

Fitchburg, Mass.

MR. SAFFORD'S CHRISTIANITY.

The late Dea. Daniel Safford, of Boston, was a noble specimen of Christian character. His life was an eloquent sermon, and the serene radiance of his piety was the means of leading many to Christ. His integrity to business, and suavity in society, and benevolence to every call of charity, combined with an intelligent zeal in all church relations, made him one of the most loved and useful Christians in our city. His life is worthy of study by all who would learn how a man of moderate talents and humble trade can, by virtue of an unflagging purpose, become an important pillar in the temple of God. "Gail Hamilton" has a discriminating article on his life and character, in the Congregationalist, from which we make some extracts, illustrating the practical qualities of his piety:

A widow and three daughters who lived by their needle, said they could not afford the time to attend evening meetings. He might have told them that their souls were much more important than their bodies, but he did not, because he was as wise as he was good. He just made up to them the time they spent at meeting. They were all converted. Every body would be converted, if Christians were only Christians. To an old negro whom he found on a journey to Connecticut, too old to spin, and living chiefly by faith, he gave a little money "for fun," and left an order at a store for his annual supplies. Let it be recorded, too, that an unnamed neighbor in Connecticut, finding this negro very sick in his hut, had him removed to his own house, and tenderly cared for till his death. Christ was in Connecticut then. A young Irish girl came to Mr. Safford's door with a sad story of a lost husband, a lost child, a cruel landlord, a "praste" that "had too many poor already." His family was sent to look after her, a bed was provided for at the hospital, and three weeks afterwad her happy face was at his door, "the nicest boy in the city" in her arms, and she begging leave to call him "Daniel Safford," and give him Mr. Safford's religion too, because he "tuck pity on me when my heart was bruk." Twenty-five years afterward she came to his house to weep for his death.

Little children were picked up in the streets, taken to his house, washed and dressed, and started in life happily and fairly. The prettiest picture I have seen this many a day is one of these little befriended three-year-old children, just on the eve of leaving home for a beautiful new home which he had found for her. Too excited to eat her dinner, she trotted around the table shaking her curls, and touching each one as she passed, to get a smile; but every time she passed Mr. Safford, she would draw down his ear and whisper:

"If you love me as I love you
I'll take a great chopping knife to cut our loves in two."

One poor woman, who had been reared in West Indian luxury and could do nothing available with her own hands but make jelly, he provided with quinces and sugar for her jellies, rose before light in the winter to make the fire which her own helpless fingers were unable to do, overlooked her accounts, and took care of her till her death, and then took her three children home to his own house.

Mr. Safford would have a prayer somewhere in all his parties. People objected that it was incongruous. He wished, he answered, to allow nothing in his own house which would not harmonize with religious worship. He hit a principle square in the head. An Irish Catholic woman, forty years old, wanted to be his cook because she had heard that no dinners were cooked on Sunday. She was told that as the servants were considered members of the household, they were always expected to be present at family prayers, and if she could not conscientiously unite with them, it would be better for her not to come. She came—and was allowed to use her Douay version of the Bible—note the wisdom of this man—nobody interfered with her or tried to proselyte her. In a few months she began to cry over the "beautiful hymns." Then she wanted her eight-year-old nephew to go to Mr. Safford's Sabath school. Then she wanted a seat in his church, "for," said she, "I have been observing the religion of this family ever since I came into it, and it seems to me more like what I find in the Bible than that of the Catholic." So she became a Christian and died in the faith. Of course she did. Everybody would be a Christian if the family was the religious centre.—Watchman & Reflector.

SAFE IN HEAVEN.

'Mother,' said a dying child who loved Jesus, 'shall you cry much when Jesus takes me?'

'I am afraid I shall,' replied the mother, tears filling her eyes.

'Oh, please don't,' entreated the child with a distressed look,' please don't, for you know whatever may happen to Jessie and John in this naughty world, your little lambs will be safe. Sin and Satan can't snatch her from Jesus' arms never, never. Won't that comfort you, mother? You never need worry about me.'

TO THE LADIES.—The celebrated DR. L. DIX particularly invites all who need a Medical or Surgical adviser, to call at his Rooms, No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., which they will find arranged for their special accommodation.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this portion or branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he exceeds all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also, all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. The Doctor is now fully prepared to treat in his peculiar style, both medically and surgically, all diseases of the female sex, and they are respectfully invited to call at

PIN WORM SYRUP

Is the first and only remedy ever offered to the public for the effectual removal of the Ascarides, or Pin Worms, from the human system. The high reputation it has established in the last two years, and the fact that it is fast superseding all other worm remedies, is the best test of its great excellence.

It affords Relief in twenty-four hours and an Entire Cure is warranted when taken according to directions, which accompany each bottle.

This SYRUP is also a most valuable family cathartic, to be always used when physic is required, especially for CHILDREN. It corrects the secretions, gives tone to the stomach and bowels, assisting nature in her efforts to restore health. It is PLEASANT OF VEGETABLE INGREDIENTS, AND ALWAYS SAFE AND RELIABLE.

In a late London journal we find a report of the proceedings of a public meeting at York, at which the Lord Mayor presided, and several Canons of the church avowed their hearty support of the cause of the North.

The Rev. Canon Hey proposed a resolution declaring that this meeting cordially approves of the policy of non-intervention in American affairs pursued by her Majesty's government, and avows its entire agreement with the sentiments expressed by the Earl of Derby in the House of Lords, that it would be premature to recognize the nationality of the Confederate States, at all events before the government at Washington shall, by an abandonment of hostilities against them, virtually acknowledge their independence." He then said that in issuing the requisition calling the meeting it was for two objects—"non-interference" and "anti-Slavery." On these two grounds he thought there could be no difference of opinion, but at the same time there was that disposition amongst Englishmen to take the side of the weaker party, and say, "Well done, little one." But it was their duty to look back at the origin of the quarrel, and however they admired the conduct of the Southern Confederacy, they must acknowledge that their cause was a bad one from the beginning. [Applause.] The policy of the South had always been not only to maintain Slavery, but to extend it and make it aggressive. They had only remained in connection with the northern states so long as they had a President to favor their own views, and the moment they found the Presidential chair occupied by President Lincoln the present war had commenced, and he therefore asked if the meeting could call the present a holy and just quarrel? not allow themselves to be deluded by the opinion of too many of those who were disposed to take up and sympathize with the weaker side. He said nothing could defend the system of turning a human being into a thing; but in reference to a present interference between the belligerents he said an emphatic No. Interference in the present state of public feeling would be not only useless, but embroil the parties more and more. [Applause.]

The Rev. E. A. Toller then proposed: "That this meeting, having in view certain facts brought to light through intercepted despatches and other sources, declares its belief that direct aid and co-operation have been afforded to the Confederate States by their sympathisers in this country, who have negotiated loans and fitted out and manned vessels of war on their behalf; the meeting therefore desires emphatically to protest against such proceedings as an infringement of the Queen's proclamation, and as altogether disrespectful and disloyal to the status of England as a neutral power." The reverend gentleman supported the resolution by a most earnest speech, in which he showed that slavery was a sin against the law of God, and that the supporters of those who were doing as was referred to in the resolution were guilty of a wicked act.

The Rev. Canon Robinson, in introducing the following resolution boldly avowed himself a northern sympathizer:

"That this meeting is decidedly of opinion that the conflict now raging between the two sections of the North American republic had its origin in the question of slavery; and that as the object of the southern section is, by the evidence of their own official documents, to establish a great slaveholding Confederacy, the meeting, entertaining that unmitigated aversion to slavery which has characterized Englishmen and foreigners, desires to repudiate all sympathy with a state which so avowedly makes slavery the fundamental principle and corner-stone of its constitution, and at the same time to express its hearty appreciation of every honest and sincere effort on the part of northern statesmen or citizens to free themselves from the shame and guilt of the system."

All these resolutions were unanimously carried, so the established Church of England begins to speak out in our favor.

Important Arrest by the Secret Detectives of the Government.

Two of the Secret Detectives of the Government arrived in town yesterday, from New York, on their way to Washington. From them we received the following items:

An important arrest of a Rebel was made on Sunday evening at Bellistation, on the Potomac, a few miles this side of Harper's Ferry. He gave the name of Cross. He had received a pass from the Provost Marshal at the station, on Saturday, and on Sunday evening he proceeded to cross the river. Suspicions were aroused from his actions and he was detained and a search made, when a large amount of Virginia and Rebel money, together with Baltimore funds, found upon his person. He had bought a lot of prints in Baltimore, worth $2.50. He was at once transferred to the Relay station, and everything was proved against him. He confessed that he had smuggled four barrels of liquor to the South some time previous. He was taken to Baltimore on Monday, where he took the oath of allegiance to the Government, after which he was allowed to go at liberty.

While the Detectives were in New York one of a genteel-dressed parties purchasing goods, intended for the South, at Trenchi's Hotel. They are Jews. The name of one being L. L. Leigeater. The others do not give their names.

Two important arrests were also made in New York on Monday morning. But as accomplices of these parties are operating in another direction, the names or their transactions cannot be given, as it would afford a clue for their companions in crime to escape.

It has been discovered that the majority of the goods smuggled South of the line come from New York, via Baltimore. Parties are now engaged in large numbers, in both these cities, endeavoring to assist the Rebel Government in this manner. After leaving Baltimore they are transmitted through Martinsburg and Winchester, to certain points near the line, previously arranged between the parties. The goods are then transported to various localities within the Rebel domains by the owners, as the case may be.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF EXPERIMENTS. To few circumstances are we more indebted for our perfection in science, than to the successful experiments of practical men. This was brought forcibly home to us the other day by reading over the names of individuals who received medals and premiums from the American Institute of New York in 1862. We were particularly struck with one article which was awarded a very high prize. In the little memories of the successful candidates at the Annual Institute, we find that Mr. Speer had been for nine years preparing his celebrated Sambucus wine, which has since proved so decided a success. Nine years of unvarnished labor, close study, heavy outlay, innumerable experiments, are a long period to look back on, yet Mr. Speer can look with satisfaction on the years so spent, when he is convinced that his wish has been consummated. We are glad Mr. Speer has lived to see his Sambucus wine superseded the abominable imported trash with which Americans are yearly poisoned.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Gen. Banks and the Department of the Gulf.—The following is the conclusion of a business letter written to Gov. Andrew by Maj. General Banks:

"I believe in the papers of the North a report that certain regiments, or detachment, or soldiers of my command, have been ordered or permitted to return to their masters, against their will, to stand guard over, and to flog the slaves in this department. It gives me pleasure to be able to say that it is without foundation or justification. In fact, in statement and in implications it is utterly and intensely false.

As it is made a reproach to Massachusetts, that such orders are given by one of her citizens, I desire to say to you, the Chief Executive Magistrate of the State, having had many of her unexpired regiments under my command, that I bear constantly in mind that I am a son of Massachusetts and grateful as the remembrance may be to me and mine, I have yet greater satisfaction in the fact that as an officer of the army of the U. S. following the instruction of the President, and the laws of the land—

I have never performed, permitted, or passed without its appropriate censure, any act inconsistent with my duty, with the spirit and principles of the people among whom I was born, or that justly interpreted, would not meet their approval without party distinctions.

Our country has many sorrows, and has yet to encounter many natural trials—none greater than those engendered by wanton and wicked perversion of truth. In the hands of strong men, the truth alone is an adequate remedy for all evils. It aids every cause, and supports all men. If the people of Massachusetts pant for greater sacrifices of blood and treasure than they have made, and yet must make, in the defence of their great cause let them foster a national spirit of wanton and shameless mendacity. It will open an abyss, deep enough and dark enough to swallow all the children that may spring from their loins for innumbered of generations."

The Expedition of Negro Soldiers into the Interior of Rebeldom.—A Port Royal correspondent of the New York Tribune makes the following statement in regard to the negro expedition which left Port Royal about the 1st inst.—This expedition took with them about five thousand muskets to arm negroes upon the plantations along the route. The ultimate destination is supposed to be the interior of Georgia:

As I am writing, the fine steamship Boston and several smaller vessels, all laden with negro troops are lying off the wharf, expecting in an hour or two to sail for Florida. This expedition is composed of all the negro troops now mustered into service in this department. It is to be accompanied by white troops, and the negro and the negro alone, will bear all the praise or blame to follow the success or failure of the enterprise.—Col. Higginson, the 1st South Carolina, will have command in the field, and for the time being, will be acting Brigadier General. Through causes beyond the control of any one in the Department, this expedition has been delayed until the present moment.

At what point in Florida it has landed, and in what way it has operated against the enemy, you will probably learn first through rebel sources.—Though known here and talked about, it has been thought advisable to keep the Northern reading public in ignorance until co-operating movements have been made at other points. As the negro soldiers embarked on board the boats and left Beaufort harbor, Gen. Saxton gave them a parting salute of thirty-two guns, the fine band stationed in the city struck up a national air, and the white handkerchiefs of the ladies, who have so long had the best interest of the African at heart, waved them adieu.

Passports.—Pending the draft, which is expected to be ordered one of these days, no passports are granted from the State Department except to persons who can prove satisfactorily that they are exempt from the operation of the draft, or who can deposit a bond with the U. S. Marshal, approved by that functionary, for the payment of $300 commutation fee in case they should be drafted during their absence. These regulations are not adopted because any persons are supposed to be leaving the country to dodge the draft, for the weekly list of departures for Europe shows no increase since the passage of the conscription bill; but in anticipation that a panic for fleeing out may spring up at any moment, similar to that which was seen when the draft was ordered last year. The passport regulations, above noticed, are the same as those adopted on that occasion, though we do not learn that any order has been issued to detain persons who attempt to leave the country without a passport. This, however, is a natural sequence of the other restrictions, and will probably be applied as soon as the new Provost Marshal has been appointed—that office being vacant by orders received from Washington recently. A number of citizens having occasion to go abroad on business have made arrangements with Marshal Murray upon the terms proposed, and have got their passports without further difficulty.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Naval Agriculture of the West.—By far the most important fact in the history of naval warfare is the development of a remarkable building capacity in the West of naval vessels of modern descriptions. It is, we believe, something not yet generally known that within sight of the city of St. Louis there are in process of construction not less than six of the most complete, most powerful and largest iron Monitors ever built.

The New Californian Senator.—Mr. John Conness, the new Senator from California, is said to be in favor of freeing the slaves of rebels, and if used by, of arming them.

RUMORS OF THE WAR.

(Newspaper Cor. Phila. Press.)

The following are the latest humorous items of the times, all of which are original:

"Hurrah for Jeff Davis!" shouted a little fellow on Cedar street, the other day.

"Hurrah for the devil!" rejoined an indignant private of the 1st Tennessee.

"All right," said the juvenile: "you hurrah for your name, and I'll hurrah for mine."

Which was good.

"Hurrah for Jeff Davis!" shouted a gentleman, who was standing in front of the St. Cloud.

"Not much, sir," remarked a member of the Provost Guard, grabbing him by the shoulder.

"But I've done no harm, my dear man."

"Yes you have; you cheered for Jeff Davis."

"Oh, yes; but I meant the fellow who shot Nelson—Colbert."

Provost left, hastily.

"I wonder," said an old lady in my presence, "when this fighting will cease?"

"When officers get the same pay as privates," replied a corporal near.

Which was unkind.

A few days ago I discovered an old darkey on the corner of Broad and Vine streets, singing:

"We're no less days to sing his praise
Than when we first begun."

"Whose praise do you mean?" I inquired "the Lord's, or Mr. Lincoln's?"

"We're no less days to sing Master Lincoln's praise
Than when we first—"

But before he could finish his melody, a partly decomposed decayed apple descended from the hand of a dilapidated private soldier detailed on detached duty above, square upon the devoted cranium of the ditched songster, and he departed disgusted.

Colonel Gillem, one of the finest of gentlemen and strictest of officers, was one day reprimanding one of his soldiers, who was slightly intoxicated at the time. After the Colonel had concluded the soldier remarked:

"Yes, a soldiut have occasion to talk to me so if I had a pistol." The Colonel, much astonished, asked:

"Well, sir, what would you do if you had a pistol?"

"Why, I'd shoot—myself, sir."

Which rather pleased the Colonel.

Meeting of the Constitutional Union State Central Committee.—PROVIDENCE, March 19.—At a meeting of the Constitutional Union State Central Committee, held this day, Mr. Geo. Lewis Cooke was elected chairman, and Mr. William Bodfish, Secretary.

Ex-Governor Wm. W. Hoppin having declined the nomination for Lieut. Governor, the Committee proceeded to ballot for candidates to fill these vacancies.

His Excellency William C. Cozzens, of Newport, was nominated for Governor, and Hon. Henry Butler, of Warwick, for Lieut. Governor.—These gentlemen having accepted the nominations the Committee present the following ticket to the electors of Rhode Island for their support at the election to be held on the first day of April next:

For Governor—William C. Cozzens, of Newport.

For Lieutenant Governor—Henry Butler, of Warwick.

For Secretary of State—John R. Bartlett, of Providence.

For Attorney General—Walter S. Burges, of Providence.

For General Treasurer—Samuel A. Parker, of Newport.

For the Committee,

GEO. LEWIS COOKE, Chairman.

A Curious History.—Some weeks ago a man named Douglas Fraser, living in Buffalo, murdered his wife and children, set fire to his house, and then disappeared. The Toronto Globe says of this unfortunate man:

"He came to this country in the year 1834, from the neighborhood of Lanarkshire. He was very well off pecuniarily, and was respectably connected. His grandfather was a baronet, and one of his brothers was formerly a Lieutenant. He studied law under Sir Allan McNab, and became a member of the bar. He practiced law in Hamilton successfully for a number of years. He interested himself much in public questions, took an active part in the defence of the Grand River squatters dispossessed of their lands for the benefit of the Indians, and at one time offered himself a candidate for Parliament. About eight years ago he went to Scotland and got married there. He was greatly respected by all who knew him, although considered to hold very peculiar views on certain questions. Many of the old residents of Hamilton remember Mr. Fraser well. He owned considerable property in that city at one time, but sold it previous to his removal to Buffalo, nearly two years ago."

They Appreciate Him.—A New Orleans correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer sends the following, which was clipped from the Planter's Banner, published at Franklin, La.:

"Vallandigham's great speech will be issued from the Banner office in a few days, in the form of an extra, at fifty cents each. Those at a distance can obtain it by forwarding the price by mail. It is a tremendous thunderbolt thrown into Lincoln's camp. It was delivered in the lower House of the United States Congress last month, and is by far the greatest speech of the war. It has put the whole Northwest in a blaze, and has electrified the South. It is lengthy, there being enough of it to fill the Banner full, and two columns besides. Copies of it can be obtained at this office any time after next Wednesday."

Western Cotton Speculation.—A St. Louis correspondent writing in reference to speculation in cotton by army officers, says:

"I understand that Gen. Curtis has demanded an investigation of these matters, and it is possible that the sending of Gen. Sumner to this department is but temporary, and that the former officer will be returned to command as soon as the investigations are completed. The court for the examination into the cotton trade has not yet commenced its sessions, General McDowell having failed to appear. He is expected here daily. The other officers of the court are in the city and awaiting the arrival of the senior officer."

The New Exemption of Ministers from Draft.—The Episcopal Recorder, in an article referring to the refusal of Congress to exempt ministers of the Gospel from liability to draft, says:

"Nor will there be any serious consequences from the refusal to grant this exemption. Whenever a "minister" of the Gospel is useful to his people and preaches faithfully to them of Christ, they will gladly contribute for his relief the three hundred dollars the law prescribes for commutation. Should they not be ready to this, or should the drafted minister be without a church connection which will pay this amount for his discharge, we cannot see that he has any public claims to be exempt from the performance of that service, distasteful as it may be, every loyal citizen is now called upon to render."

The report of the capture of Col. Higginson's and Col. Montgomery's black troops does not seem entitled to credence. No doubt the rebels in Georgia would be very apt to start such a report in order to quiet their negroes.

On inquiry as to the cause of this honor being shown to a person of whom no one had ever heard before, it was found that she had in her will directed that ten silver groschen should be given to every one who followed her to the grave. Such a fact was not long in getting wind among the poorer portion of the population.

Letter of General Banks to Governor Andrew.—The following extract from a business letter written to Governor Andrew by Major-General Banks is published in the Boston Traveller. It will be seen that General Banks denies some recent rumors:

"I notice in the papers of the North a report that certain regiments, or detachments, or soldiers of my command, have been ordered or permitted to return to their masters, against their will, to stand guard over and to flog the slaves in this department. It gives me pleasure to be able to say that it is without foundation or justification. In fact, in statement and in implication it is utterly and intensely false.

Let us acknowledge our ignorance, and pray that we may be led to the right decisions.

If obedience to the Government be right, let us render it.

The Agricultural Bureau is about to inaugurate an important system of obtaining monthly reports of the condition of the crops in all parts of the country. For the Poor.—We learn that Rt. Rev. Bishop Hughes, of New York, when called on by the Assistant Assessor for his return of silver plate, liable to tax under the U. S. Revenue Law, rendered twelve thousand and forty ounces, with the remark, "You need not exempt me forty ounces, the country requires all the tax."

The Whisky will be put up in quart bottles, and packed in cases of one dozen each.

Dear Sir: The want of Pure Liquors for Medicinal purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles.

We have tested the Bourbon Whisky which you send us, and consider it justly entitled to the high reputation you claim for it.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable Apothecaries in different parts of the United States as Agents for the sale of your Bourbon Whisky, where the profession can obtain the same, when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

FROM KENTUCKY.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE FIRING INTO THE NASHVILLE TRAIN.

LOUISVILLE, March 20.

The Nashville train, yesterday was thrown off the track by guerillas placing obstructions four miles above Richmond Station, and not at Woodburn, as previously stated, the locomotive tender and two express cars were smashed the guerillas fired into the four cars containing women and children, they called themselves Morgan's men; the passengers threw the fire killing one and wounding three guerillas. One passenger was slightly wounded. The guerillas commenced pillaging at the head of the train and took away officers' side arms, rifled their carpet sacks, &c. Adam's Express Safe was robbed of its contents, a part were subsequently recovered. The mail on the train was seized, but was recovered. The conductor ran back a mile to Stockade, soldiers came up at double quick, recaptured the train and drove on the guerillas, wounding several and taking four prisoners. Gen. Brannon and Lieut. McKee who were in the rear car were neither captured or pillaged but are safe at Nashville.

GEN. BURNSIDE IN BALTIMORE.

At a Union Meeting in Baltimore, which Gov. Johnson was speaking, Gen. Burnside entered the hall in citizen's dress; being recognized he was received with wild enthusiasm by the people. He made a few remarks after Mr. Johnson concluded.

REBEL ATTACK.

NEW YORK, March 21.

A special Herald despatch dated Murfreesboro 20th says, Col. Hall's brigade of Gen. Reynold's division was attacked near Milton to-day by a large force of rebel cavalry. Col. Hall sent word he could hold his own until reinforcements could arrive. Col. Wilder went to his aid with a mounted infantry force. At last reports quite a heavy engagement was going on.

The rebels have lately been making serious demonstrations from Gen. Morgan's position at Liberty Gap, on our left.

ELECTION.

ERIE PEN, March 20.

P. Metcalf Union candidate was elected Mayor to-day by a majority of 144.

GEN. BURNSIDE GOING TO HARPER'S FERRY.

WASHINGTON, March 20.

Gen. Burnside left for Fortress Monroe to-day. Enough money has been put into the hands of Paymaster Generals to pay the army to March 1st. Three hundred and seventy released prisoners arrived from Richmond to-day, some of them very intelligent.

Mr. Leeds, of Cincinnati, and a New Orleans Pilot mentions the steady and significant removal of machinery for manufacturing ordnance and small arms from Richmond to Northern Georgia. The removal of ordnance stores in large quantities has also been going on for some time. The possibility of the transfer of the seat of war below Virginia is recognized by the authorities at Richmond. Upon the interesting point of the duration of the war, Mr. Leeds said it might last six months after the next crop, but he thought it would be ended with that crop if Vicksburg should be taken. It would end almost immediately for the armies would be cut off from their supplies of meat which is in Texas. He said every pound of meat eaten in the Richmond prisons came from there. He mentioned a conversation between General Winder and another officer well authenticated in which Winder said it would be ended by August. Mr. Leeds declares that there is a general feeling among the soldiers from all the Southern States favorable to ending the war and returning to the Union. The prisons in the South are full of deserters awaiting trial by court martial. Military executions are so common as to cease being commented upon by the papers.

Gens. Milleh and Staughton and seventy-five others of various grades are in the Liberty Prison. Seventeen of our officers held to be tortured for Col. Scavins the French lady, are at hard labor in the Penitentiary at Richmond. Gen. E. W. Hucks who is still suffering by wounds received at Malvern's Hill and but just received at Antietam, has been reported for duty here, he will probably not be assigned to active service in the field. An Englishman named James Dobson was arrested to-day near Point of Rocks, Md., he is charged with carrying mail information and contraband articles to the rebels; his admission as to his acquaintances have renewedly led suspicion to several prominent residents of Washington, who have not heretofore been altogether above it.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

CHICAGO, March 21.

Yesterday the Chair and Furniture factory of Sherman & Barle and six dwellings were entirely destroyed by fire caused by the explosion of the factory boiler, four persons were dangerously wounded. Loss 60,000 partially insured.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

A Tribune special despatch from the Army of the Potomac, 20th, says that after the review of the 12th Army Corps by Gen. Hooker yesterday, he met the officers at Gen. Sherm's headquarters. In the course of the interview he expressed his gratification at the soldiery appearance of the corps under their command, and said that he relied upon them for their assistance and hearty co-operation in the coming campaign. So far as he was concerned he meant that there should be no more mistakes to doubtful results. If the enemy did not run, God help them.

R. R. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington.

Under the Act of 1837.

No. 50 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON,

Has been solicitor for upwards of twenty years, during which time he has prosecuted more claims for patents than any other person in the United States, including many of the most important and valuable patents, Reissues, Designs, Assignments, and Copyrights in the United States, and procured patents in Great Britain, France, Belgium, Prussia, Russia, Austria, Spain, Portugal, Canada, &c. Also, he has prosecuted many claims before the Courts, and Congress, and the Departments at Washington, for Patents, Pensions, Land Warrants, Bounties, Back Pay, Claims against the Government, &c. Also, he has prosecuted many claims for Patents rejected in the hands of Attorneys, Claim Agents, and others, who have failed to obtain patents, and many of the rejections have been for the reason that the inventors were not informed how to prepare their papers properly. Inventors should bear in mind that the Patent Office is a tribunal, and the Examiners are Judges, and that the Attorney who prepares the papers for the inventor, should be a person who understands the law, and the practice of the Patent Office, and the Courts, and who can prepare the papers so as to secure the rights of the inventor to the extent he is entitled to, and not a person who is a mere scrivener, or who is ignorant of the law, and the practice of the Patent Office, and the Courts. Persons who have been deceived by such Attorneys, should be careful how they place their cases in the hands of others, for fear of injury being done them, which they may not be able to repair. Persons who have invented something, and who have made models and drawings, and have written out descriptions of their inventions, and who have read the patent laws, and think they understand their rights, are often deceived by pretending Attorneys, who profess to be well versed in the patent law, who for a fee, will take their money, and do the business in such a manner as to injure the interests of the inventor, and yet the inventor may not be able to see the injury himself. Persons who have been so deceived, should not be discouraged from applying to a competent and faithful Attorney, for the ends of justice, and the interests of inventors, demand that the rights of inventors should be secured, and that they should be encouraged to perfect and patent their inventions. Persons who have been deceived by such Attorneys, should be careful how they place their cases in the hands of others, for fear of injury being done them, which they may not be able to repair. Such unmeritable practices as these have caused many persons to lose the largest and most valuable portions of their patents, and have caused many persons to lose the entire benefit of their inventions, and have caused many persons to lose the entire benefit of their inventions, and have caused many persons to lose the entire benefit of their inventions

THE SPECIFIC PILL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR

Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Pathyeology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an aura or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomical electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards of France, or from any quarter of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge the most contradictious, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in these United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, therefore, than is NOW charged for the hand-some labeled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over country. Mch 30 1y

CURE THAT COUGH OF YOURS.

Use the best, safest, and cheapest Remedy the world has ever produced.

ONLY 13 & 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient,—warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—Do not be persuaded to pure base articles at 18, to 31, which do not contain the virtues of a 13 ct. Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cts., and in large bottles at 25 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 13 cts. and in larger bottles at 25 cts.
